RESOLUTIONS

Regent Blank presented the following Resolution.

Whereas, Nathan D. Fuerst has served with distinction as Student Regent and President of the Association of Students of the University of Nebraska since March 29, 2001; and

Whereas, Regent Fuerst very effectively presented the views of University of Nebraska-Lincoln students to fellow Board members, the Nebraska Legislature, and the citizens of the state; and

Whereas, Regent Fuerst very effectively presented the views of University of Nebraska-Lincoln students to fellow Board members, the Nebraska Legislature, and the citizens of the state; and

Whereas, immediately following the September 11th terrorist attacks Regent Fuerst launched a Red Cross fund drive and urged fellow students to wear blue ribbons to show their concern for the victims and their families; and

Whereas, Regent Fuerst created a Student Emergency Task Force that prepared suggested response plans for future student leaders who might have to react to the occurrence of tragic events; and

Whereas, a broad and representative Budget Reduction Task Force was appointed by Regent Fuerst to help student government evaluate and offer advice regarding budget reduction proposals; and

Whereas, Regent Fuerst has launched an initiative that will offer students an internet site providing greater amounts of information about university courses and the faculty who teach them; and

Whereas, the ASUN internet site and other computer-based student government services will be greatly enhanced by the 2002-03 budget that Regent Fuerst developed.

February 23, 2002

Therefore, be it resolved that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents expresses sincere appreciation for Nathan D. Fuerst's dedicated service and effective leadership as a member of the Board, and wishes him well in all of his future endeavors.

Regent Fuerst thanked the Board for excellent experience he had while serving on the Board.

Regent Miller presented the following Resolution.

Whereas, Ryan Samuelson has distinguished himself as a dedicated student body president for the University of Nebraska at Kearney; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson is the only student in University of Nebraska history to complete two full terms on the Board of Regents; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson and his student-body cabinet reestablished and expanded the Student Envoy program as a student communication and recruitment vehicle; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson initiated a review of the student discipline process on the UNK campus and helped develop a procedure to help ensure fair hearings; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson has served on the University of Nebraska Bioterrorism Preparedness Task Force, the UNK Chancellor Search Committee, the UNK Strategic Planning Committee, and the UNK Technology Advisory Committee; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson has emphasized student recruitment as a primary goal during both of his terms as student body president; and

Whereas, Regent Samuelson, a/k/a "disc jockey extra ordinaire," has gone above and beyond the call of duty in providing his fellow Regents with an entertaining CD collection of hits from the 50s, 60s, and 70s for their lifetime listening (and singing) enjoyment.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents congratulates Ryan Samuelson for his outstanding service on the Board and wishes him well in all his future endeavors.

Regent Samuelson thanked the Board for the wonderful the time he had serving on the board during his two years. Regent Samuelson played and sang the UNK fight song.

Regent Hassebrook presented the following Resolution.

Whereas, Jay Matzke, M.D. was elected to the University of Nebraska Board of Regents in November 2000 and has served with distinction since January 2001; and

Whereas, Regent Matzke has demonstrated a sincere concern for education at all levels, having served as president, vice president, and treasurer of the Millard Board of Education prior to being elected to the Board of Regents; and

Whereas, during his service on the Board of Regents, Regent Matzke has been a strong advocate for quality education for all Nebraska students; and

Whereas, Regent Matzke has demonstrated concern for the ability of students of modest financial means to have access to the University of Nebraska; and

Whereas, Regent Matzke has supported improvements in the effectiveness and efficiency of all the operations of the university; and

February 23, 2002

Whereas, Regent Matzke has brought his courtesy, friendliness and good humor to all of his dealings with students, faculty, staff, and administrators, as well as his colleagues on the Board;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents regretfully accepts the resignation of Regent Jay Matzke, thanks him for his excellent service as a member of the Board, and wishes him well as he begins a new phase of his medical career in Sheldon, Iowa.

Regent Matzke spoke to the Board regarding the great experience he had as a Regent, and thanked the Board for their support.

The Board recessed at 9:00 a.m. to take pictures with the KUDOS and Resolution recipients and reconvened at 9:10 a.m.

V. STRATEGIC OR POLICY ISSUE

President Smith made a few introductory comments to the Board regarding the Forecasting Board's report on the amount of shortfall. Smith introduced the panelist speakers:

Senator Bob Wickersham,
Senator Ron Raikes, and John Jordison, President, Nebraska Tax Research Council.

Each member of the panels presented information about the structural issues surrounding the state's budget and their reviews of the long-term revenue issues.

Discussion was held.

President Smith thanked the speakers for their time and their presentation.

The Board recessed at 10:20 a.m and reconvened at 10:30 a.m.

VI. HEARINGS

A hearing on the following item was opened by the Chair.

There were no public comments regarding the proposed amendment of Section 3.9 of the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska. Addendum IX-B-1.

Chairman Schroeder closed the hearing.

VII. PUBLIC COMMENT

Dick Davis spoke to the Board about the need for cooperation from all entities to support need based student aid. The Coordinating Commission on Postsecondary Education released a report entitled, "Blocked Opportunities: Meeting the Financial Aid Needs of Low-Income Students." (For report, see documents file.)

Regent Ferlic and Hassebrook thanked Dick for his persistence on this issue as it is a very important.

Regent Wilson stated that the structural issues need to be addressed to best maximize the number of needy students that can benefit from need based aid to attend higher education.

February 23, 2002

- Motion Moved by Wilson and seconded by Ferlic to adopt the following resolution.
- Whereas, the Board of Regents has identified as a major issue of concern the large number of University of Nebraska students who have personal and family resources insufficient to finance a college education; and
- Whereas, it is estimated that there currently exists $32 million of unmet student aid among Nebraska's postsecondary education students; and
- Whereas, the Board of Regents has taken the initiative by redirecting existing and new revenue to provide institutional support to needy students; and
- Whereas, the University of Nebraska Foundation is in the process of raising private funds to provide endowed support for needy students; and
- Whereas, the Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education has recently issued a report entitled Blocked Opportunities: Meeting the Financial Aid Needs of Low-income Students; and
- Whereas, that report calls for significant increases in state financial aid to reduce the existing levels of the unmet financial need of Nebraska college students; and
- Whereas, that report further calls for creating a new program for students attending public institutions, maximizing the number of students receiving financial support, and creating a long-term goal of increasing the share of state dollars going to needy students attending public institutions.
- Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents hereby concur with the conclusions and supports the recommendations contained in Blocked Opportunities, commends the Coordinating Commission for its work in this area, and urges the Nebraska Legislature to continue to support increased funding for needy Nebraska students attending the University of Nebraska.
- Discussion was held.
- Motion Moved by Miller and seconded by Matzke to amend the resolution by adding the following sentence to the end of the last paragraph of the resolution: "To encourage harder work in high school, need based aid should also be allocated on the basis of performance in high school."
- Discussion was held.
- Action on Amendment Student Opinion: Aye: Riggs. Nay: Samuelson, Wentz, Fuerst. Voting Aye: Miller. Voting Nay: Hassebrook, Matzke, O'Brien, Schroeder, Wilson, Blank, and Ferlic. Motion failed.
- Action on original motion Student Opinion: Aye: Wentz, Fuerst, Riggs, and Samuelson. Voting Aye: Matzke, O'Brien, Schroeder, Wilson, Blank, Ferlic, and Hassebrook. Voting Nay: Miller. Motion and Resolution passed.
