VII. RESOLUTIONS

Regent Schafer presented the following resolution

WHEREAS, Lieutenant General (USAF, Retired) Robert C. Hinson, has served as the founding executive director of the National Strategic Research Institute at the University of Nebraska since its inception in September 2012. He retires after more than a half century of supporting the missions of the Department of Defense; and

WHEREAS, General Hinson served for 33 years in the United States Air Force, leading as Vice Commander of Air Force Space Command at Peterson Air Force Base and Deputy Commander of U.S. Strategic Command at Offutt Air Force Base. General Hinson is a command pilot with more than 3,000 flying hours, primarily in B-52, FB-111, and B-1 bomber aircraft. He received many prestigious awards and decorations during a long and distinguished military career that included 25 moves for his family while they served our country; and

WHEREAS, General Hinson continued to support the national security of the United States upon his retirement from the Air Force, serving for nine years as vice president of government programs and corporate lead executive at Northrop Grumman; and

WHEREAS, Under General Hinson’s leadership, as the University Affiliated Research Center of the University of Nebraska, NSRI has received three contract awards from its sponsor, U.S. Strategic Command — $84 million in 2012, $92 million in 2018 and another $92 million in 2020. The institute has also received $30 million in additional contracts and grants for a total of $298 million; and

WHEREAS, General Hinson has instilled a tenacious pursuit of mission in the institute’s expanding team of leaders, scientists and partners. In total, the institute has more than 75 professionals working from offices and laboratories across the University of Nebraska’s campuses and near customers in the national capital and space coast regions. NSRI has collaborated with more than 350 NU researchers and students to serve 44 customers across the DOD and federal government. All numbers that will continue to grow thanks to the course he has set for the institute and the university going forward; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his prolific career, General Hinson continues to contribute to his community, serving on the board of directors for several organizations, including the STRATCOM Consultation Committee; the STRATCOM Strategic Advisory Group’s Bomber Task Force Panel; and the SAC Air and Space Museum. He has also served on the Offutt Advisory Council and the Peter Kiewit Institute Board of Policy Advisers; and

WHEREAS, General Hinson has demonstrated through his work — and genuine relationship building across our university community and beyond — a humbleness, authenticity and passion that comes from true commitment to purpose. He has been known to pound the table zealously to advocate for the best possible opportunities and deliverables for the warfighters and first responders NSRI keeps at the center of its work. He recently said: “We must always be thinking ahead to the next threat and the next solution.” Bob, please know, we will.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents expresses its sincere appreciation for the exemplary contributions of General Robert Hinson during his term of NSRI Founding Executive Director and in the more than 42 years of dedicated service and support to our country’s national defense prior to this role. Bob, we wish you, Karen and your family well in the promising future that awaits you all.

Regent Weitz presented the following resolution

WHEREAS, Howard Hawks has represented District 2 on the University of Nebraska Board of Regents since 2002; and

WHEREAS, Regent Hawks has served twice as Board chairman and has also led numerous Board committees, including the 2014 Presidential Search Screening and Selection Committee; and
WHEREAS, drawing on his exceptional experience in the fields of finance, business operations, and strategic planning, Regent Hawks has made the University a more efficient and effective organization by prioritizing public-private partnerships, investing in deferred maintenance, and advocating for more state investment in higher education and research; and

WHEREAS, Regent Hawks is a Nebraska native, and two-time University of Nebraska alumnus, who has not only served the citizens of District 2, but the entire state of Nebraska admirably as an elected official, civic and community leader, and philanthropist; and

WHEREAS, Regent Hawks has earned the respect of those who served with him on the Board as well as current and past Presidents, Chancellors, and other members of the University community; and

WHEREAS, Regent Hawks decided to retire from his service as a Regent and not seek a fourth-term of office in 2020; and

WHEREAS, Regent Hawks leaves a legacy as a champion of the University of Nebraska and its four campuses through well-crafted public policy, strategic public investment, and generous philanthropic support that will forever be remembered by the entire University community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Regents extends its deepest thanks and appreciation to Howard Hawks for nearly two decades of dedicated service on the Board and wishes he and Rhonda the very best in their next chapter of service.

Resolution Adopted

There being no objection, the above resolutions were approved and adopted by the general consent of the Board.
