

NEBRASKA PROMISE

ATTEND THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, TUITION FREE.

What is the Nebraska Promise?

The Nebraska Promise is a program that covers undergraduate tuition at the University of Nebraska's four campuses for students who meet academic qualifications and have a family income of $65,000 or less.

Do I Qualify?

You must meet these four qualifications to receive tuition assistance through the Nebraska Promise program.

Family Income: $65,000 or Less

You will qualify for the Nebraska Promise if your family's annual income is $65,000 (AGI) or below or if you qualify for a Pell Grant.

Nebraska Resident

You must be a Nebraska resident to qualify for the Nebraska Promise.

Full-Time Undergraduate Student

You must take at least 12 credit hours each semester to qualify for the Nebraska Promise.

Maintain 2.5 GPA

You must maintain a 2.5 GPA to maintain Nebraska Promise benefits.

Next Steps

1

Apply to one of the four NU campuses or NCTA, our two-year technical college.

2

Fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA.

3

Do both before June 1st.

For more information, to apply for admission or to fill out your FAFSA:

▶▶▶ nebraska.edu/promise