

A THANK YOU TO HUSKER FANS FROM PRESIDENT GOLD

It's a great time to be a Husker! Our student-athletes are reaching new heights in the classroom and on the field, we have exceptional coaches and staff leading our programs, and most of all, Nebraska continues to be blessed with the greatest fans in the world.

We're grateful to each of you for your support of the Huskers and the University of Nebraska.

Our commitment to excellence goes beyond athletics. Students, faculty and staff across the University of Nebraska are making a true difference for people here and around the world through their education, research and service. I'm reminded each day what a privilege it is to be part of a university that does so much to impact the lives of people like you and me. Indeed, our mission to serve our state has never been more important. Because of you, our future is bright.

I can't wait to see what Coach Rhule and the team accomplish on the field this year—and what all of us will accomplish together as we write the next chapter for Nebraska and our great university.

“Thanks to your support, the University of Nebraska is in a strong position to grow, succeed and change lives.”

I have never been more proud to be a Nebraskan.
Go Big Red!
