What we do

How does AIG protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to employees, representatives, agents, or selected third parties who have been trained to handle nonpublic personal information.

How does AIG collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you
• apply for insurance or pay insurance premiums
• file an insurance claim or give us your income information
• provide employment information
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only
• sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
• affiliates from using your information to market to you
• sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

You have the right to see and, if necessary, correct personal data. This requires a written request, both to see your personal data and to request correction. We do not have to change our records if we do not agree with your correction, but we will place your statement in our file. If you would like a more detailed description of our information practices and your rights, please write to us at: Privacy Officer, CIPrivacy@aig.com.
IMPORTANT NOTICE TO OUR CUSTOMERS REGARDING THE OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL ("OFAC")

Your rights as a policyholder and payments to you, any insured, additional insured, loss payee, mortgagee, or claimant, for loss under this policy may be affected by the administration and enforcement of U.S. economic embargoes and trade sanctions by the OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL ("OFAC").

The United States imposes economic sanctions against countries, groups and individuals, such as terrorists and narcotics traffickers. These sanctions prohibit US persons from dealing with these sanctioned parties. The purpose of this notice is to inform you that we cannot violate US sanctions by engaging with sanctioned countries or people.

WHAT IS OFAC?
OFAC is an office of the Department of the Treasury and acts under presidential wartime and national emergency powers, as well as authority granted by specific legislation, to impose controls on transactions and freeze foreign assets under U.S. jurisdiction. OFAC administers and enforces economic embargoes and trade sanctions primarily against:

- Targeted foreign countries and their agents
- Terrorism sponsoring agencies and organizations
- International narcotics traffickers
- Proliferators of Weapons of Mass Destruction

PROHIBITED ACTIVITY
- OFAC enforces certain embargoes and sanctions against designated countries. No U.S. business or person may enter into transactions involving designated "sanctioned" countries.
- OFAC publishes on its website a list known as the "Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons" ("SDNBP") list. No U.S. business or person may enter into transactions involving any person or entity named on the SDNBP list.

Additional information about OFAC Sanctions Programs and Countries can be found at: http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Programs/Pages/Programs.aspx

OBLIGATIONS PLACED ON US BY OFAC
If we determine that you or any insured, additional insured, loss payee, mortgagee, or claimant are on the SDNBP list or are connected to a sanctioned country as described in the regulations, we must block or "freeze" property and payment of any funds transfers or transactions.

POTENTIAL ACTIONS BY US
1. We shall not be deemed to provide cover when it would violate any applicable sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union or the United States of America. You will not receive a return premium unless approved by OFAC. All funds will be placed in an interest bearing blocked account established on the books of a U.S. financial institution.
2. We will not pay a claim or provide any benefit to the extent that such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would violate any trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the United States of America and we will not defend or provide any other benefits under your policy to individuals, entities or companies to the extent that it would violate any trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the United States of America.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A POLICYHOLDER
If funds are blocked or frozen by us in conjunction with the OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL, you may complete an "APPLICATION FOR THE RELEASE OF BLOCKED FUNDS" and apply for a specific license to request their release. Forms are available for download at the OFAC website. See https://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Pages/forms-index.aspx
