

DIGITAL EDUCATION

BRT Summer Update 2018

▶ YEAR 1 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

▶ 10%  in gross DE tuition 2017-2018 (summer projected)

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT

- ▶ Instructional Design Summit launched
- ▶ Increased number of online sections in in high-demand gateway/bottleneck courses

STUDENT SUPPORT

- ▶ System-wide tool for video captioning acquired in partnership with OneIT, improving accessibility and ensuring ADA compliance
- ▶ Expansion of open access textbook initiative to find and develop open academic resources to replace traditional textbooks and assessment of economic impact on students
- ▶ 'Learn to Learn Online' course at UNO

INFRASTRUCTURE ENHANCEMENTS

- ▶ NeSIS team integrated intercampus registration in student information system
- ▶ Launched lead nurturing initiative
- ▶ Changed name to University of Nebraska Online
- ▶ Convened system-wide online marketing and recruitment subcommittee

PROGRAM/COURSE DEVELOPMENT

- ▶ Developed key new online courses with research study into innovative instructional strategies efficacy
- ▶ Grant funded development of two market-driven online programs – Social Work, BS (UNK) and Social Work, MSW (UNO)

IMPACT TO THE UNIVERSITY ▶

Additional campus operating revenue
Communication and collaboration promoted across the university
Improvement in processes and systems for students
Enhanced efficiencies

ON-GOING CHALLENGES & OPPORTUNITIES

 Variability in data input across the University

Business process and procedure barriers for online students

Resource model for sustainability and future growth

Visibility of online courses for non-degree learners