- U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Service-disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB);
- U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Center for Verification and Evaluation (CVE);
- National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce (NGLCC);
- Nebraska Unified Certification Program; or
- Any successor or qualifying organization.

3. Policy Goals

The goal of this policy is to increase the participation of certified diverse businesses competing for business opportunities with the University through a comprehensive supplier diversity program that includes targeted outreach and increases the opportunity to effectively reach diverse business owners and supply them with the same information and benefits that are available to all businesses.

4. Policy Scope

The following individuals share primary responsibility for implementing this policy:

- Chief Business Officers
- Offices of Business and Finance
- Offices of Facilities Management and Planning
- Offices of Procurement
5. Policy Implementation

The University will:

- Seek out partnerships with organizations that provide access and support to diverse businesses as funding is available and utilize local, regional, and national resources to identify certified businesses; and
- Reaffirm its policy statement and adopt the following statement of commitment that shall be included in all requests for proposal or invitations for bid issued by the University in its procurement and contracting activities:

Policy Statement:

The University of Nebraska reaffirms its policy of providing equal opportunity to small business enterprises and to minority-owned, disability-owned, women-owned, veteran-owned, LGBT-owned, and certified diverse businesses in all aspects of the University’s procurement and contracting activities. This includes procurement of or contracts for operational supplies and equipment, construction projects and materials, service contracts, and lease agreements. It also is the University’s policy that any person or business seeking the opportunity to do business with the University shall not be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and/or political affiliation. The University of Nebraska conducts its procurement and contracting activities in a manner designed to prevent unlawful discrimination. University policies are consistent with applicable state and federal laws and regulations prohibiting unlawful discrimination.

Statement of Commitment:

The University of Nebraska is committed to creating a climate that encourages certified diverse businesses to compete for University business within the parameters of state and federal law and Board of Regents policies through outreach, informational, and support programs that foster the access and success necessary for the prosperity of our state and its people.

- Develop a University-wide supplier diversity website through the efforts of the Office of Diversity, Access, and Inclusion and staff identified by the Chief Business Officers;
• Identify and implement campus engagement activities to include diverse suppliers;

• Appoint and/or identify personnel to develop, implement, and administer a supplier diversity program as outlined in the Policy’s goals;

• Provide training for campus personnel with purchasing, facilities management, or operations responsibilities; and

• Direct each campus to develop strategies for including diverse suppliers to be considered in purchasing opportunities and collect applicable data in order to determine the effectiveness of its diversity efforts and for other legal purposes. Departments and offices within the scope should also establish a method to monitor implementation of the outcomes of strategies.

6. Policy Adherence

The Chancellor or the Chancellor’s designee, in collaboration with the campus Chief Diversity Officer and other responsible parties identified by the Chancellor (e.g. procurement) will regularly submit information on supplier diversity activities and assessed outcomes as well as the use of diverse suppliers to the President at a mutually agreed upon time.

Dated this 9th day of August, 2019.
