Flexible Spending Account Overview
Flexible Spending Account Overview

- Beginning June 5, 2013, the University of Nebraska’s Flexible Spending Account (FSA) plan will be administered by WageWorks.
  - Providing you and your family with a competitive benefits plan is a top priority for the university. Our goal is to provide employees with the most reliable, compliant, and flexible FSA benefits administration program available.
  - To achieve this goal, we conducted a competitive bid process and received bids from more than 20 vendors. After the review process was completed, WageWorks was selected as the university’s FSA program administrator. WageWorks will provide participants with improved plan features that our current internal administrative system could not offer.

- What will change?
  - You will have more convenient payment options and easy access to your account.
  - Minimum annual election amount of $480.00 ($40.00/month) will be required for all new employees to enroll in the FSA plans.
  - Additional FSA information can be found at the university’s benefits website at www.nebraska.edu/benefits.
Confidentiality

Confidentiality of Information and Data

- Maintaining the confidentiality of your personal information and data is a high priority for the university and was a vital element of the bid process.
- WageWorks has a very high-level, secure platform that protects your confidential information. As with all employers, WageWorks is required to comply with federal HIPAA laws and regulations.
- We are very confident of WageWorks’ internal security and safeguards that are in place to protect your personal data.

  - Visit www.wageworks.com for a list of eligible health care and dependent care expenses.

- Who’s covered?
  - Yourself, your spouse and any dependent children. An Employee Plus One Adult Designee can also be eligible if an IRS tax dependent.

- You will not be able to submit claims for reimbursement during the hold period.
Migration Process

- Migration process
  - Only year-to-date FSA totals will be sent to WageWorks, no historical details of claims are moved over.
  - Employees should submit only claims to WageWorks that have not been reimbursed by the university. If you are audited by the IRS, you will be responsible for any duplicate claims submitted to both the university and WageWorks.
  - Pending or unprocessed Dependent Care claims will not move over. Employees will be required to resubmit claims to WageWorks for reimbursement.
  - Health and Dependent Care claims not processed by the university must be sent to WageWorks after the migration is completed using a WageWorks claim form.
  - Current recurring over-the-counter (OTC) prescriptions and Letter of Medical Necessity forms will not transfer to WageWorks. You must provide documentation to WageWorks to receive reimbursement.

  - The card will only work at approved merchants and should only be used for eligible products and services.
  - Visit the WageWorks website to review a list of qualified merchants, like drug stores, supermarkets and warehouse stores that accept the card.
  - You should always save all of your receipts or digital copies. Even when your card is approved, a detailed receipt may still be requested.
  - The card is best used for prescription purchases at a pharmacy

  - Request cards online or through customer service. When you request a card for a dependent, use the last 4 digits of your Social Security number for the ID code (not your dependent’s SSN).

If you use your card at one of these places, you may be asked to submit an Explanation of Benefits (EOB) or other documentation for verification. If you do not submit documentation, your card may be suspended.
  - WageWorks will send you an email if you have card transactions that need to be verified.
